All Souls Unitarian Universalist Church Hosts Annual Gala and Silent Auction

Largest Fundraiser of the Year Invites Public to Enjoy Live Music, Food, and More

(Shreveport, Louisiana, April 2, 2018)

All Souls Unitarian Universalist Church is pleased to announce their Annual Gala and Silent Auction will be held on Saturday, April 28, 2018 from 6 to 10 p.m.

The church's largest fundraiser of the year will be held at the church, 9449 Ellerbe Road. Live music will be provided by Jim Huckabay and Sandra Odom. Exceptional items will be auctioned off in both live and silent auctions and include gift certificates, art, event tickets, and much more.

The theme for this year's event is "Buy Buy Birdie," inspired by the beloved 1963 musical. Attendees are encouraged to dress to impress – poodle skirts, saddle shoes, cardigan sweaters, and wingtip shoes.

Tickets for the event are $25 in advance and $35 at the door and are available for purchase Sunday mornings before and after the 11 a.m. church service or by calling the church office at (318) 868-3313. Raffle tickets are available for $1. Raffle tickets include a free Strawn's pie, potted plants from Lex's Plant Farm and Akin's Nursery, and more.

At present, All Souls is home to a variety of ministries, including religious education for children and adults, Eastern meditation, and many social groups. All Souls also provides a meeting place for many area groups, including Northern and Central Louisiana Interfaith, support groups, Louisianans for Prison Alternatives, Ár nDraíocht Féin, Louisiana Trans Advocates, and more.

Originally founded by an interfaith couple, All Souls has been home to liberal religion in Northwest Louisiana for more than 70 years. All Souls continues to affirm and promote core principles, such as the inherent worth and dignity of every person. All Souls believes that we need not think alike to love alike.
