Enneagram II: Integration and Spirituality

Friday March 14, 2014 6:30 — 9:15 p.m.

Saturday March 15, 2014 9:00 a.m. — 4:00 p.m.

About the Workshop :

Early in Christianity, ascetics would seek solitude in the desert, believing that knowledge of themselves was essential to knowing and understanding the presence of God within them. The great mystics—St. Teresa of Avila, St. John of the Cross, etc., called for an inner journey of self-discovery necessary for discovering the divine presence and action of God within the human soul.

The Enneagram is a tool for discernment, designed to increase our ability to accept the personal mystery, to answer the question, “Why do I do these things?” We are never free until we are free from ourselves, and the Enneagram is a path to that freedom, providing a road map of the places where we get stuck, a deeper understanding of our tendencies, preferences and compulsions, and a guide to integration of our three energy centers: the head, the heart and the gut, or instincts.

The workshop includes:

- ◆ Appropriate and inappropriate uses of energy centers
- ◆ Paths of Disintegration (destructive ways) and Integration (wholeness)
- ◆ Overcoming compulsions
- ◆ Traps and Holy Ideas
- ◆ Conversion for Each Enneagram Number

Prerequisite is attendance at a Basic Enneagram Workshop or a fairly good grasp of Enneagram theory from reading and a pretty good idea of what your Enneagram number might be.

You can access www.enneagraminstitute.com and take the RHETTI (Riso Hudson Enneagram Type Indicator) to aid in determining your Enneagram personality type.

To register, please fill out registration form and return with payment. Registration is $85 per person. Fee includes all workshop materials, refreshments, and lunch on Saturday. Payment should accompany registration form. Check-in will begin at 6:15 Friday evening.
